People could now eat meat on Friday except on Good Friday. Many people continued not eating meat even though it wasn't required of them. More recently the U.S. Bishops have reinstated abstinence for the Fridays of Lent and strongly recommended it for all the Fridays of the year.

Vatican II changes in regard to the Sacrament of Penance. Penance as a sacrament may be received in a communal setting. We may also receive the sacrament face to face with the priest in the confessional, or in the traditional form with a curtain in the confessional.

Vatican II changes gave the parishioners a much more active part in the governing of their church. We now have a Liturgical Committee, Parish Council, Finance Committee, Maintenance Committee, and an Education Committee. We also have Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Choir, Acolytes, and Ushers.
