THANK YOU

As I prepare for the next phase in my ministry, I would like to thank all the parishioners of Holy Family Parish. It has been a very special time in my life, and I have made friends that I know will last a lifetime, and into the next life as well. I remember getting my assignment to come to PdC, and knowing the good things Fr Jerome was accomplishing, I told the bishop I would be ok remaining in Chippewa Falls. I am beginning to see a pattern here, as I tried more than once to persuade the bishop to remain here this spring. However, it seems he is adamant that I move on to serve the people of Marshfield. This is a challenge for me personally and for our parish family. However, compare this to building not a house, but a home. The work is never finished. There is always one more room, always one more project, one more challenge; and then a pipe breaks or the sewer backs up, the list never ends. Parish life is never stagnant, and this is a new chapter in the life of Holy Family Parish, one that I am sure will be blessed.

Our parish has grown in so many ways, becoming more and more united as one in Christ. The individual traditions of St Gabriel's and St John's will continue as a testament to our ancestors who sacrificed so much to build these parishes, and I am sure that the same will be said of the founding families of Holy Family Parish in another 100 years. The various groups that make up parish life are vibrant, and will serve our next pastor as you have served and worked with me in my time here. If you are thinking that now might be a good time to become more active in your faith life, consider offering your talents to the various ministries (lectors, ushers, communion minister, either to the home-bound or at Mass, sacristan or helping with decorations), seek out the Knights of Columbus, PCCW, becoming a member of the choir, The Men's group or the Holy Name Society. These and so many more opportunities to serve our church and grow in your faith. It has been an honor to serve alongside so many good men and women, growing in my faith, and hopefully walking with you as you grow in your faith.

At this time, there are some changes still. Fr Dave, who was planning on coming down, will be taking a different assignment. As I write this, I cannot say who it is that will be replacing me, but am praying for a good man. With a parish of this size and a school, I am sure they will be sending someone soon.

Thank you for the many prayers offered over the years, and especially for those offered these past weeks. Thank you to all those that offered gifts as I was preparing to take leave. It is truly humbling to see these expressions of gratitude, and know they are greatly appreciated. You will be remembered in my prayers and Masses as I go forward to serve directly the people of Marshfield. May God continue to bless you and your families and loved ones for your generous spirit.

In closing, I know there are some that I may have offended in my 10 years. Please know that these have never been intentional, but the result of my lack of communication skills. I pray that if I have pushed anyone away, they will be open to speaking with the new pastor and reconciling. For those that I may have offended in any way, please accept my apology.

May God's blessing continue to reign in your hearts.

In Christ

Don't forget to use SCRIP over the summer months. We all need to purchase groceries, gasoline, etc. Plus our gift cards make great gifts for any occasion. SCRIP is such a painless way to make extra funds for our parish and school.

SAVE THE DATE: All are invited for an evening dedicated to Our Blessed Mother. Come join the Prayers & Potluck Buffet on Thursday, August 1st. Petition requests for Our Blessed Mother (attendee or not) may be placed in the sealed petition boxes located in the vestibules of both Churches. Watch future bulletins for additional details. (Sponsored by PCCW)

If you use a cell phone for your main phone we sure would like to have your phone number if you have not given it to us already. Also if you have moved please call the rectory and let us know what your new address is. Thank you!

Because of the 4th of July holiday the bulletin had to go to press early so we will publish the collection for June 29/30 in the bulletin next week.
