THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Dear parishioners and visitors,

Twice per fiscal year I go away on vacation usually to visit family or friends. I will be leaving this Sunday, Sept. 22nd and return Friday, Oct. 4th. I tell you so that you know that I will be gone. Some like to know where I will be going so I tell you generally that I will be visiting friends in Virginia. My mode of transportation is to take the train. I love it because I make it part of my vacation. I have always loved the train. It isn't because I can't take the plane but I don't know if I can fit in the seats, and I need leg room. I haven't flown since 1994.

One of my bucket-items is to cover every mile that Amtrak travels. Hopefully with this vacation, I will cover the last long-distant route which I had to change plans several years ago due to track repair. If I cover all the intended routes of this and the next trip in February to visit family, there should only be @ 80 miles left which I hope to complete the winter of 2021. I hope that when I complete that bucket-item that I won't kick the bucket right after it!

Thank you, and God bless you.

Msgr. Stoetzel

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Msgr. Stoetzel will confer the sacrament of the anointing of the sick on Tuesday, October 15th at the 8:15 AM Mass. This sacrament is given to those Catholics who have major illnesses, preparing for major surgery, aging, or dying. This will be during the Mass with the school children so they can pray and see the sacrament which many people do not.

CONGRATULATIONS to Joe & Joanne Prew on the occasion of their 50th Wedding Anniversary on September 27th. May God continue to bless them.

An additional scripture study of the following Sunday texts will begin Oct. 2 in the basement of St John School 6:45-7:45pm during CCD. Enter school at Wacouta entrance. Please join us.
