Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You

are present in the Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things,

and I desire You with all my heart.

Since I cannot now receive

You sacramentally,

I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already

In my heart

and unite myself to You completely.

Please do not let me ever

be separated from you.

Amen

Dear parishioners and visitors,

One of many things that have changed over the years is the declining number of companies that do not print magazines. Over the years, I have subscribed to theological and railroad magazines to keep abreast in these fields. However, within the past year, the two theological companies have ceased printing publication and are concentrating on obtaining information through the computer. Luckily, the four subscriptions I have for railroad magazines have not yet indicated they are going to follow suit. However, I wouldn't be surprised if one day this too will come to pass.

One time I almost purchased a Kindle to download books but I backed out thinking I might not use it readily as I should. I guess I still like to have a book in-hand when I read. Whenever I take books with me on vacation, I leave the books either on the train or at the station for others to read. One time on vacation and between trains in Washington, DC, a man thanked me for giving several books to him because he would take them to a center for disabled war veterans. He said that money was tight and buying books was at the bottom of the list there. I said I was happy to help and thanked him for his service to the veterans.

I guess there is still a need and place for old-fashioned venues for reading: books and magazines.

Thank you, and God bless you.

Msgr. Stoetzel
